GROVE'S PHARMACY

Olive Oil

Most of the Olive Oil that is used in this country is made in this country and adulterated with cotton seed oil. We have handled a great deal of this grade but have at last discarded it. The best Olive Oil there is comes from Southern France where the Olives grow and is far superior to any other.

This is the grade of oil we now offer for sale, and while it costs nearly three times as much we sell it for the same—5c an ounce, or 50c a pint. Give us a call.

DOOLAN TALKS ABOUT THE CLIQUE

He Tells Mulcahy What the Matter is With the Democratic Party in Harrison County.

"And, Doolan, what is the matter with the Democratic party in Harrison county? It looks to Mulcahy like something had dropped."

"If it wasn't for pity I'd slap your face. Of can tell yiz what ails it and why the people are sad, as sure as you name is Mike Mulcahy. You see, the party, like Lueretia, was raped, and that by a set of tricky scoundrels as ever lived."

"Who did it and how was it done?"

"Why, Mike, the clique, assisted by a few lazy yaps from the country who lied to the people about Roter being a whiskey man. You see some sheep in wools clothin' would go around and tell the people that Roter was for whiskey. These lynx-welps wanted to be Deputy Sheriffs, and they were no more fitted for it than Purgatory is for a powder house."

"Now, there is Jawn Bullskin. He was promised, in case Parker was elected, that he should be made Minister to Orland. He told me o' hisself, and asked me where he could buy a Bible. Said he had never seen inside of a Bible, and if he was made preacher to Orland, he'd have to be lookin' up a text. The last I son of him he was spelling out the words and trying to read. He said he could read, but could not understand. Poor Jawn! He failed to deliver the goods. Guess he has lost his grip."

"Then there is Doubledist, of Eagle. He has no qualifications except his size. Jost give him a tumb of apple jack and he feels so good that he shes-ahs a small gentleman with a tent stake, or shoots his neighbor so full of holes that he is taken home to his friends lookin' like a cribbage board."

"Then there is Fred Grant. The people liked him so well that they elected him to stay at home by the biggest majority ever given any candidate in old Harrison."

"But," said Mike, "surely the Shinstown man himself is a nice man?" "Well, if he was so nice, why the devil did he grab the woman in Shinstown about two years ago and she a married woman at that?" "I dunno," said Mike.

MAYLOTT THE CHAMPION

Wins Honor of Being Champion Tennis Player of Men's Class in Y. M. C. A. in the Tournament Finished Friday Morning.

In some of the fastest and most brilliant tennis playing that this city has ever seen, the final championship of Clarksburg and vicinity was played off Thursday and Friday on the local Y. M. C. A. courts.

The men to come up for the championship in singles were Dr. H. E. Sloan and J. T. Maylott. The first set ended in favor of Maylott by score of 6-4. The second set went to Maylott with score of 6-4, making it straight sets for the local secretary. The series to decide the contest was for the best three out of five.

Up to the third set when the games were 4-4, it looked as if a tripartite of the former sets was to be witnessed. Sloan surged ahead and took the lead, winning the set by score of 8-6. The fourth set was started and the first game was won quickly by Maylott.

At this juncture Maylott found that his opponent had a stitch in his side and under the conditions they agreed to finish the series the next day, which was done, and Friday morning at ten o'clock both men appeared on the court for the final sets. The score at the end of the decisive set was 6-1 in favor of Maylott, thereby giving him the championship, winning the best three out of five sets. The official referee of the game was Frank H. Rhoads.

The remains were taken to the First Presbyterian church where services were held and from there the remains were taken to the cemetery where the Eagles burial ritual was performed. The funeral was largely attended.
